Connecticut Valley, New York, August 1891

My dear Mr. Brewster,

I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write you. I have been thinking much of late about the future of our country and the state of our Union. I feel that we are in a very critical position and that we must take prompt action to preserve our liberties and our Union. I have been reading much of the history of our country and I am struck by the wisdom of our forefathers. I feel that we must follow their example and stand firm for the principles of liberty and justice for all. I have been thinking much of the late President Lincoln and his noble character and his great services to our country. I feel that we must strive to be worthy of his memory and his example. I have been thinking much of the future of our country and I feel that we must take prompt action to preserve our liberties and our Union. I have been reading much of the history of our country and I am struck by the wisdom of our forefathers. I feel that we must follow their example and stand firm for the principles of liberty and justice for all. I have been thinking much of the late President Lincoln and his noble character and his great services to our country. I feel that we must strive to be worthy of his memory and his example.

Very truly yours,
John D. ...

Conquista de la Bética: poema heróyco; de Juan de la Cueva.

(In Fernandez, R. Coleccion de poesías castellanas. 1795.) 8º.

Conquista de la Nueva Castilla, poema eroico . . . D.155.23

Paris. Blanc & cie. 1848. xiii, (1), 211 pp. 12°.

"It is a short narrative poem, written apparently about the middle of the Sixteenth Century, by some unknown author of that period, and devoted to the glory of Francisco Pizarro, from the time when he left Panama, in 1524, to the fall of Atabalipa. It was found in the Imperial Library at Vienna, among the manuscripts there, but it seems to have been edited [by Johann Andreas Sprecher von Bernegg] with very little critical care. It does not, however, deserve more than it received. It is wholly worthless." — Ticknor's History of Spanish literature.

Conscience, Cases of.

Clarke, Samuel, Pastor of St. Bennet Fink, London, compiler.

Golden apples. Or seasonable and serious counsel from the sanctuary to the rulers of the earth, held forth in the resolution of sundry questions, and cases of conscience about divisions, schisms, heresies, and the tolleration of them. Collected out of the writings of the most orthodox, and judicious divines, both Presbyterians, and Independents.

Dear Sir,
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the above mentioned subject. I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the result of the late election. I am, however, confident that the people of the State will soon be satisfied with the result of the next election. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
